

NOTE: AFS highly recommends that liaisons and other volunteers who might wish to host a student – even if only for a short or overnight period – complete a host family application. Since volunteers must be fully screened as a host family before hosting a student, it's best if they have a complete application on file for the current program cycle in the event that they wish to host a student in the case of an urgent move or otherwise.