Want Free Professional Development? Become an AFS-USA Volunteer!

Are you interested in developing your professional skills while helping international students have a meaningful exchange year? Take advantage of free certifications and trainings for volunteers, opportunities to build your interpersonal and professional skills, a strengthened community network, and more!

Whether you're looking for a one-time volunteer experience at a local AFS event or a more regular role, there is something for everyone. When you invest in yourself and your community as a volunteer, everyone benefits.

Our story is your story, and we can't wait for you to join the AFS movement.
