

Your AFS Volunteer Liaison Journey

Welcome to AFS-USA! As a liaison, you will guide hosted students and their host families through the international exchange experience while developing your own cross-cultural communication skills. As a key part of the AFS support network, you will work directly with international high school students and their U.S. host families to foster a life-changing journey for both parties from August through June. To prepare you for the liaison role, you'll register as an AFS Volunteer and then participate in three online trainings.

The volunteer registration process takes less than two hours of your time and looks like this:

Once all of those boxes are checked, you're a registered AFS Volunteer!

Congratulations! You're now a trained liaison, ready to meet and work with hosted students and host families on a monthly basis during the exchange program from August through June, documenting your monthly contact in an easy online form each month. Whether helping them solve problems or just lending an ear, you'll get to experience the joys and challenges of this journey with your hosted student and host family.
